

COAT OF ARMS

During the medieval period the coat of arms became a way of identifying a person. It became a symbol of what one believed in and their mark on history lasts to this very day. Design your own coat of arms using symbols, objects and colours that hold meaning to you. Then create a motto for your coat of arms to represent what you stand for. A few examples have been provided.

Examples of Coat of Arms

